Subject: IAEC-2009

We're humbly approaching you with this announcement of the 10th International Agricultural Engineering Conference (IAEC).

It is with great pleasure that on behalf of the AAAE Executive Council I'm able to invite you to Bangkok (Thailand), during December 7-10, 2009 at the Asian Institute of Technology (AIT) for the 10th IAEC.

Theme of this conference will be – “Role of Agricultural Engineering in Advent of Changing Global Landscape”.

While the conference registration will be available soon, we're accepting submissions of abstracts until May 30th (extended deadline).

Early registration can be done by October 1st.

Details on registration and conference can be obtained from AAAE website <http://www.aaae.ait.ac.th>

Best regards,

Dr. Peeyush Soni

Secretary-General, AAAE

Assistant Editor, IAEJ
